

Round Three venues confirmed for FIVB Men's World Championship

Milan, Italy, September 30, 2010 – The venues for the third round of the FIVB Men's World Championship Italy 2010 have been confirmed with Rome hosting Pools O and R while Florence will be the host city of Pools P and Q. The two cities were previously chosen as the hosts of the third round pools but the determination of which pools were to go where had yet to be confirmed.

The winner of Pool G will be joined by the second-placed teams of Pool L and Pool M in Pool O while the second group in Rome (Pool R) will consist of the winner of Pool L and the second placed teams of Pool G and N

Meanwhile in Florence, the winners of Pool H and M will be joined by the second placed team from Pool I in Pool P while Pool Q will be made up of the winners of Pool I and N and the second-placed team from Pool H.

The third round, which involves the top two teams of the six second round groups, will take place from October 4-6 before the FIVB Men's World Championship Italy 2010 semifinals from October 8-9 and the finals from October 9-10.
